

Looking for an internship for college credit? Open Door Junction City, a nonprofit organization which supports returning warriors and families through their transition from military service and beyond by providing a healing environment within an intentionally designed neighborhood, is looking for a Social Media Intern. If you are interested, please submit the following to opendoorjc@gmail.com:

1. Name
2. Phone number
3. Cover letter email addressing, "Why are you interested in this internship and how would you be a good fit?"
4. Year in school
5. Previous experience with social media (not personal)

You must have completed COMM 320 and COMM 330 to receive COMM 575 credit.

For more information on COMM 575 internship, please contact Dr. Travis Smith at tw8337@ksu.edu.
